

San Francisco State University

Application for Japanese Graduate Teaching Associateship

Application deadlines

- November 30 for employment in the following spring semester.
- April 30 for employment in the following fall semester.

Instructions

Print out and submit your completed application to:
Japanese program coordinator

Statement of application

In Japanese, briefly explain, in less than 800 characters, why you are a good candidate for the position. Be sure to include your teaching interests and experience.

San Francisco State University
DEPARTMENT OF Modern LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES
1600 Holloway Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94132

Applicant information

What is your SF State I.D?

What is your full name, including middle initial?

What is your phone number?

What is your e-mail address?

What is your complete home address?

In what semester and year did you first enroll as a graduate student in the Japanese program?

In what semester and year do you plan to complete your graduate studies?

Have you been employed as a teaching associate for the Japanese program before? (If you've been previously employed as a teaching associate for the Japanese program, please indicate the semester and year.)

List all SF State courses you have completed as part of your graduate studies. For each course completed, list the I.D., title, instructor, semester/year, and final grade on a single line. (e.g. JAPN 710, Newspapers, McKeon, Fall 2016, grade A)

Signature and Date: _____

San Francisco State University
DEPARTMENT OF Modern LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES
1600 Holloway Avenue
San Francisco, CA 94132